

SANDRA GUAZZOTTI
Head of Google Cloud, Multi Country
Region - LATAM

Sandra is passionate about technology, education and innovation as key pillars of the sustainable development of our society. From different roles she has contributed to the transformation of private and public companies as well as government agencies.

She has more than 20 years of global experience in IT, finance, management and corporate governance. In November 2021, she was appointed Head of Google Cloud for the Multi Country Region of Latin America , with responsibility over Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Peru, Central America and the Caribbean.

Prior to that, Sandra held different positions at Oracle: Chief Strategy & Operations Officer for Latin America, Senior Vice President of Multi Country Region of LATAM and General Manager of Chile in two periods: during 2018 and between 2011 and 2014.

Among her different roles at Oracle, she also held the position of Vice President of Investment Solutions and Financing for Asia Pacific, based in Singapore, and Vice President of Corporate Sales based in Japan.

Before joining Oracle in 1999, she held various positions in the financial services industry both in Japan and Argentina.

Sandra has degrees in International Relations from Tsukuba University, Japan and Senior Management (PADE) from the University of Los Andes in Chile (ESE). Additionally, she has a Diploma in Company Direction from the Institute of Directors (IoD) in United Kingdom.

She was distinguished as Chile Executive of the Year 2019 by the organization Entrepreneur Women and Capital magazine, and three times as one of the "100 Women Leaders in Chile" by Entrepreneur Women and El Mercurio newspaper (in 2011, 2018 and 2019).

Sandra is Board member of Banco de Chile, Universidad Adolfo Ibañez as well as Past President and current member of the Board of the Chilean American Chamber of Commerce (AmCham). She is also member of Women Corporate Directors (WCD) and Circulo de Directores, ESE (Universidad de los Andes, Chile).

